7. FURTHER GUIDANCE AND CONTACT INFORMATION

7.1 Ofqual

7.1.1 Contingency Planning

- a. You should prepare for possible disruption to exams and other assessments and make sure staff are aware of these plans.

7.1.2 Emergency Planning and Response to Health Protection in Schools

- a. The national cancellation of exams – and the need for alternative assessment arrangements – is now very unlikely. The government does not expect to ever be in the situation again where exams do not go ahead, but good public policy means having contingency, even for extremely unlikely scenarios.
- b. City Learning Trust Health Protection in schools Emergency Planning and Response should be read in conjunction with, and aligned to City Learning Trust Business Continuity Plans, which cover emergency planning and business continuity for a wide range of circumstances, including Public Health emergencies. Government, Ofqual and UKHSA guidance will be followed at all times.
- c. The following guidance should be considered:
  - i. <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/supporting-resilience-in-the-exam-system-in-2023/supporting-resilience-in-the-exam-system-in-2023> Ofqual guidance.
  - ii. <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/emergency-planning-and-response-for-education-childcare-and-childrens-social-care-settings>
  - iii. <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/health-protection-in-schools-and-other-childcare-facilities> Health Protection in Schools as updated February 2023

7.1.3 General Contingency Guidance

- a. emergency planning and response from the Department for Education in England
- b. school organisation: local-authority-maintained schools from the Department for Education in England

7.1.4 Wider Communications

- a. The regulators, Ofqual in England, Qualifications Wales in Wales, will share timely and accurate information, as required, with awarding organisations, government departments and other stakeholders.
- b. The Department for Education in England, will inform the relevant government ministers as soon as it becomes apparent that there will be significant local or national disruption; and ensure that they are kept updated until the matter is resolved.
- c. Awarding organisations will alert the Universities and Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS) and the Central Applications Office (CAO) about any impact of the disruption on their deadlines and liaise regarding student progression to further and higher education.
- d. Awarding organisations will alert relevant professional bodies or employer groups if the impact of disruption particularly affects them.

7.2 JCQ

- a. The qualification regulators, awarding bodies and government departments responsible for education have prepared and agreed information for schools and colleges in the event of examinations being seriously disrupted. This jointly agreed information will ensure consistency of response in the event of major disruption to the examinations system affecting significant numbers of candidates.
- b. Further information may be found at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/exam-system-contingency-plan-england-wales-and-northern-ireland>
- c. In addition, awarding bodies have their own well-established contingency plans in place to respond to disruptions. It is important that exams officers who are facing disruption liaise directly with the relevant awarding body/bodies.

- d. Centres should prepare plans for any disruption to examinations as part of their general emergency planning. It is important to ensure that relevant centre staff are familiar with the plan. Consideration should be given as to how these arrangements will be communicated to candidates, parents and staff should disruption to examinations occur.
- e. In the event that the head of centre decides the centre cannot be opened for scheduled examinations, the relevant awarding body must be informed as soon as possible. Awarding bodies will be able to offer advice regarding the alternative arrangements for conducting examinations that may be available and the options for candidates who have not been able to take scheduled examinations.
- f. The awarding bodies will designate 'contingency days' for examinations, summer 2023. This is consistent with the qualification regulators' document Exam system contingency plan: England, Wales and Northern Ireland: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/exam-system-contingency-plan-england-wales-and-northern-ireland>
- g. The designation of 'contingency days' within the common examination timetable is in the event of national or significant local disruption to examinations. It is part of the awarding bodies' standard contingency planning for examinations.
- h. In the event of national disruption to a day of examinations in summer 2023, the awarding bodies will liaise with the qualification regulators and government departments to agree the most appropriate option for managing the impact. As a last resort the affected examinations will be rescheduled. Although every effort would be taken to keep the impact to a minimum, it is possible that there could be more than one timetable date affected following the disruption, up to and including the last contingency day. Centres will be alerted if it is agreed to reschedule the examinations and the affected candidates will be expected to make themselves available in such circumstances. The decision regarding the rescheduling of examinations will always rest with the awarding body. The centre must conduct the examination on the scheduled date unless instructed to do otherwise by the awarding body.
- i. Where candidates choose not to be available for the rescheduled examination(s) for reasons other than those traditionally covered by special consideration, they will not be eligible for enhanced grading arrangements. Centres must therefore ensure candidates and parents are aware of the contingency arrangements so that they may take them into account when making their plans for the summer. However, the awarding bodies will not insist upon candidates being available throughout the entire timetable period as a matter of course.
- j. JCQ guidance above taken directly from Instructions for Conducting Examinations 2022-2023 section 15, Contingency planning. https://www.jcq.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2022/10/ICE\_22-23\_Oct22\_FINAL.pdf
